Houston, Nov 30, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - If there is any way to compensate for a week of hard work, classical music will be the answer to it all. So this week lose yourself in the musical gravity of Gregory Poulin and Herman Ringer. The romanticism of their music and their compelling ways of composing a number is winning hearts from around the world. Poulin on his piano and Ringer with his string and wind instruments have the power to make your surroundings brighter and your day to get better.

Music needs no language to communicate and they certainly don't need one to make this bridge between them and their audience.
