Get to know Internist Dr. Mohammad Saleh, who serves patients in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

New York City, New York Nov 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Saleh is a highly experienced internist of 25+ years who is in practice with Trinity Health Medical Group, Primary Care - East Paris in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He delivers medical services in both an outpatient clinic and hospital practice.

Providing high-quality care and nurturing patient well-being, he is affiliated with Battle Creek Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Trinity Health Saint Mary's - Grand Rapids, and Village Medical - Pontiac Trail.

Educated in Syria, Dr. Saleh graduated with his medical degree from the Faculty of Medicine of Damascus University in 1992. He then went on to perform his internship at Mercy Health Grand Rapids in 1994, his residency in internal medicine at Spectrum Health/Michigan State University in 1996, and an additional residency in internal medicine at St. Mary Mercy Hospital.

Well-trained in all primary care services for adult patients, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Teaching healthcare excellence, Dr. Saleh has been serving as a Clinical Preceptor within the Trinity Health Internal Medicine Residency Program since 1996. He is an attending physician for internal medicine residency inpatient services, and supervises internal medicine residency outpatient rotations.

Likewise, he is a Clinical Associate Professor at Michigan State University College of Human Medicine, teaching 3rd and 4th-year medical students.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
