

Prashant Beybaar topped India Film Project's Storytelling Challenge

IFP's Poetry segment is topped by Prashant Beybaar, a Mumbai based poet and lyricist.

Mumbai, Maharashtra Nov 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Every year IFP previously, India Film Project organises a National level 2 days Art Festival where various artists from varied fields, viz. Films, Music, Literature, Storytelling, Photography, Design, Performing Arts, Audio & Podcasting, Advertising, Comedy, and Gaming participate. This year Season 12 happened in Filmistan Studio Goregaon, Mumbai on October 8th and 9th, where various competitions such as 50 Hour Film Making, 50 Hour Photography, 50 Hour Music, 7 Day Writing, 7 Day Design, 7 Day Storytelling, 7 Day Stand-up were organized.

In the event of 7 days Storytelling Challenge, Prashant Beybaar, a well-known Hindustani poet and lyricist won the Platinum Trophy as the top prize amongst 1050 poets from all over India where he was first nominated in the Top 10 then after performing in front of celebrity poets, Mehak Mirza Prabhu and Nidhi Narwal, he was declared the winner. His winning poem 'Sauvi Kaali Raat ka Lamha' conveys that holding hope is the first step to winning in tough times. Prashant Beybaar creatively demonstrates it through the story of a child living in a war zone. It gives a peep into the mind of the child who aesthetically explicates the war situation and how hope is the winner in those tough times. It is written artistically creates emotion and triggers our minds in the direction of Hope. Prashant Beybaar's 'Sauvi Kaali Raat ka Lamha' has been recognised by IFP and is winning hearts worldwide.

Prashant Beybaar has composed thousands of poems along with various short stories and lyrics as well. He has been an active writer for literary magazines as well as for the screen. His poetry collection Dareeche is available on Amazon and Google books. Author's website: www.prashantbebaar.com
