Amsterdam, Nov 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Sitting in a room where lights are dimmed and a chill breeze surrounds you with its aromatic aura is the best place to relax your mood. Well, none other than the rising star Upstream can help you vibe in that way. The recently released track 'Secrets' is, therefore, taking the limelight to be one of the most heard tracks by music enthusiasts on Spotify. There's no doubt why this trio band stands out to be the best in this crowd as they know how to shape the music and touch the soul of a music lover with the best musical verses and rhythmic blends. It was back in 2017 when two experienced musicians Chaja van der Heide and André van Solinge formed this band. The talented singer and guitarist respectively performed as a trio collaborating with the bass player Erik van der Heide.

Their contribution to pop, jazz, and blues has captured the minds of audiences out there. The composition 'Secrets' proves how smooth a jazz track can be perfectly mingled with a pop tune. The musicality within this track leads you to a state of melancholy and assures you to come up with a mature understanding. Well, Upstream is an inspiration to every musician who has dreamt of building a successful career in music. Their tracks like – 'Join the Caravan', 'Mighty Mezz' and 'Perfect Blend' will surely make your day. This music trio has already been to their latest event at Streetparty in the Centre of Amsterdam on October 15th. Fans are waiting for more from the rising band.
