From some gripping intense poetry to some highly interactive music, their first collaborative track ‘Living My Life’ is making a significant impression on this music industry. They have been pursuing this career separate music careers yet when they came together to perform this track a sort of magic happened. From this highly impressive musical form to their charmingly narrated number, this song is vastly loveable for every heavy metal lover. Having mastered their eclectic styles, in this number they have been complementing each other’s styles impressively and with all their might.

Heavy metal has always been very impressive to listen to. But for this number, the most intriguing part was their quirky, upbeat, and prolific tunes. The highly intense and collectively grooving verses will make sure that people are having a great time while listening to this number. The storytelling vibes of this number are nothing but the soaring soul of this number. The vocal qualities are leaving a forever impression along with a highly energetic tune. This song is produced by the RockNRoland Heavy Metal production label. Hip-hop has always been the most diverse musical form in the world and this undaunted genre is providing some gripping music that you will enjoy on a loop.

They have stated that the song is “Strictly for the People”, referring to the social aspect of this song, while the world of music is busy battling with their inner battles there are people who are trying to make sure there is enough for them and their families. This hard truth about life is very disheartening to understand. And the song 'Living My Life' is making sure that this side of the story is also shared with the world. Yet the song is quite light-hearted yet the undertone is also very enthralling to experience. Apart from their solo releases, they will surely be back with more impressive numbers as a duo in the future as well. Until then you can listen to their numbers on the official YouTube page of RockNRoland Heavy Metal production label. You can them on Instagram as well.
