New York City, New York Nov 22, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Olabintan, or “Dr. O” as she is fondly called by her patients, is an experienced family physician. She is the Co-Founder of Livingspring Family Medical Center, providing wellness, preventive, and basic urgent medical services to patients of all ages in Mansfield, Texas.

“Livingspring” was inspired by the Holy Bible describing God as “The Source of Living Waters” and the ultimate source of true healing. In the place of service, Dr. Olabintan believes she is a conduit of such healing in an atmosphere of compassion, committed care coupled with sound medical knowledge and experience.

Fulfilling her vision of creating a center where sincere care meets wholesome care, she offers comprehensive medical care in a comfortable, family-friendly environment - essentially a home away from home. She is passionate about helping individuals live long, and believes the quality of one’s life is just as important as the length (quantity) of it.

Welcoming patients of all ages, backgrounds, races, and creed, Livingspring Family Medical Center offers wholesome healthcare services geared towards: helping patients prioritize their own health; maximizing preventive/wellness visits; combining traditional medications and healthy lifestyles to help patients feel better and live happier lives; and providing care, sincerely because people thrive when they feel cared for.

A 2007 graduate of Rutgers New Jersey Medical School, Dr. Olabintan went on to perform her residency in family medicine at Jamaica Hospital Medical Center in 2010, where she served as chief resident. She also completed a fellowship in women’s health / surgical obstetrics at St. Francis Hospital in 2011.

Helping patients live long and well, she is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

In addition to being a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians (FAAFP), Dr. Olabintan is a certified HIV Specialist by the American Academy of HIV Medicine.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Outside of practicing medicine, Dr. Olabintan enjoys singing, reading, dancing, playing table tennis /ping pong, and writing. She is a Christian, wife, mom, speaker, writer, and mentor who can’t get enough of the colors teal and orange & enjoys good cuisine.
