Mission Viejo, California Dec 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - “3rd Annual EzWay Awards Golden Gala”

(RSVP) FREE www.ezwayawards.com

Throughout the multiverse of mergers and acquisitions companies like Apple and Amazon have thrived where others have failed. However, eZWay Broadcasting’s CEO, Eric Zuley, also referred to as the “Digital Dick Clark” has stayed the course of this digital millennium and grown his platform to dizzying heights. Now it’s time to really spread the wealth with the Third Annual eZWay Wall of Fame Golden Gala.

An epic two-day event will launch and reveal to the world immeasurable game-changing opportunities that will transform the lives of the many who will participate and tune in. There will be an App launch that encompasses over twenty years of innovation, and the 3rd annual star-studded eZWay Wall of Fame Golden Gala Awards Show extravaganza that gets bigger and better every year.

First, on December 9th, 2022, from 8 am-6 pm an 8-hour virtual summit will launch the new App which cojoins two decades of modernization with technical solutions for businesses and talents to gain access to top influencers, elite business solutions, and the ability to connect with service providers, speakers, entrepreneurs, CEO’s, and celebrities from around the world at the touch of a button.

Then, on December 10th, 2022, EzWay’s 3rd Annual Golden Gala Awards. Last year’s Host, former Entertainment Tonight Host, Pat O’Brien was exceptional in the final award show performance of his iconic and illustrious career. This year’s award show will be hosted by Eric Zuley, Hollywood Walk-of-Fame Honoree Kate Linder (The Young and the Restless) and actor, and director Trae Ireland (Family Time), and Johnny Venokur (VP Development in Reality Television).

This year the event will take place from 5 pm-8 pm PST, then there will be an interactive networking party that will be from 8 pm-11 pm PST.

The interactive networking party takes place in a virtual world metaverse from 8-11 pm PST and will include 4 stages with live performances, dancing, a concert, a meet and greet, and a map with the different venues which you will effectuate with a Virtual Avatar that will simply teleport you to your desired location(s) within the event. I know, cool huh?

There will be a Musical Performance by legendary singer Bootsy Collins of the Parliament Funkadelic, Leroy Butler the singer who brought us “Who Let the Dogs Out!”, a dance performance by electrifying Soul Train dancer Scorpio, a comedy by supermodel, actress Eugenia Kuzminia, award-winning singer John Michael Ferrari and Actress/Singer Kitra Williams (Diary of a Mad Black Woman), C-Tru, a viral sensation for his song “California Party” Feat. Snoop Dogg was Discovered by DMX. You will literally be blown away by the star-studded lineup, which will undoubtedly be a show that goes down in the history books.
