She had been invited as a Guest by Mr. Shakil Akhtar, the President of the Kolkata District of the International Human Rights Commission.

This year marked the 28th edition of the prestigious film festival, which kicked off in Kolkata on December 15 and came to end on December 22, 2022. Throughout these 8 days, various National and International Films and Documentaries had been screened at the event. A total of 183 films, including 52 short films and documentaries from 42 countries across the globe, had been screened in the span of eight days.

Alisha Begum was spotted along with the KIFF chairperson Raj Chakraborty, one of the most commercially successful directors - producers in the Bengali film Industry today.

The author was found sharing the frame with none other than Jaya Seal Ghosh, the extremely talented Actress known for her great roles in movies of different languages and unique acting.

She has been spotted with many eminent personalities like Arindam Sil, the Actor-Director and the world knows him for blockbuster movies like Kahani and Byomkesh Gotro.

Alisha Begum, aka Alishluv, is one of the few paragons of excellence and is a force to be reckoned with. She did her Advanced Diploma in Spirituality from CTAA. Growth Mindset from the College of London, and Energy Healing from the University of New Mexico. She is also a certified trainer in REBT, Treating Depression, Managing stress and Anxiety. She is also a member of the International Association of Therapists and Core Spirits. She has been recognized as one of the Top Coaches by the Coach Foundation.

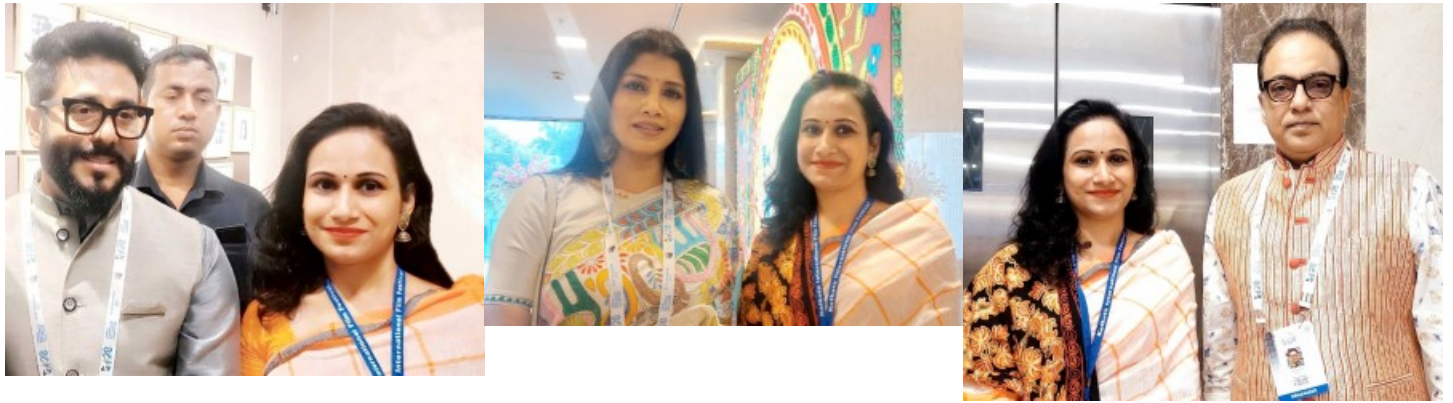

Known for her romantic fiction novels, audio/ video tapes, and her list of high-profile clients, Alisha has successfully structured her philanthropic interests to inspire and encourage others in following their life dreams. While she has leveraged her formidable personality and power of persuasion, her online classes, study materials, creative tools, and books have played a prominent role in adding light to the dark of many. She offers 1:1 Coaching, group coaching, workshops, and retreats. Her expertise lies in Energy Healing and Aura Balancing.

Alisha Begum's debut novel, 'His Possessive love', starts like a fuming hot love-hate tale of Fahad and Aasma, the two protagonists but as its progress, it turns into a lover's obsession until they realize that what possessive love took the world by a storm. Her writing is fresh and hard-hitting. She writes stories that are relatable to a younger audience that struggles with love and relationship. Her Spiritually transformative guided journals named Healing Soul, Love yourself a little more, Love and Gratitude, and Be the Unstoppable have transformed the lives of many individuals.

She believes that to arrive at a purpose, one needs to find a rhythm, between life and career until and unless it becomes harmonious
