Los Angeles, California Dec 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The Glaucomfleckens are launching the “Knock Knock Hi” podcast!

Whether you're a medical marvel or marvel at all things medical - join Will Flanary (aka TikTok's Dr. Glaucomflecken) and Kristin Flanary (aka Lady Glaucomflecken) as they explore the strange, hilarious, and deeply human experience of working in (and making content about) modern medicine.

Will is a two-time cancer survivor and has used his experience as a survivor and doctor to share his life with others in a humorous yet informative way. Will is also a big mental health and doctor burnt-out advocate.

Each week on Knock Knock, Hi! – join Will and Kristin Flanary (aka the Glaucomfleckens) as they seek out the world's weirdest, most shocking, and unexpectedly hilarious medical stories from doctors, nurses, friends, and those celebs who just “played one on TV.” Where else can you hear firsthand just what happens when chopsticks get stuck in your sinuses? Sometimes working in medicine can be REALLY funny. There's no way around it when weird stuff happens to any of us - oftentimes what happens next can get even weirder, join us here each week in 2023!
