Response to Darrell's sessions has been positive. Stephanie Scheller, founder of Grow Disrupt said, "I hired Darrell to speak at our flagship event, The Grow Retreat, in 2022 after seeing his heart for service and connection at a previous event. He showed up full of energy, fully engaged with our attendees, and had great content that I heard the attendees repeating and sharing with each other throughout the duration of the event!"

Dawn Collins, Executive Director of EO Chicago agrees: "Darrell does an amazing job engaging the audience while teaching the foundations of growth strategy in a way that is relatable. He is authentic and provides great solutions to any sales struggles. You'll be left wanting to hear even more!"

"We've only just got back into a room after more than two years of doing remote Global Sales Team Meetings, so we wanted to focus on topics that matter most to us. Darrell was able to drive home the importance of customer-focused conversations, developing our understanding of the outcomes we're already driving for similar clients and helping our prospects more effectively and create valuable client relationships. The feedback spoke volumes, Darrell is a sales rockstar!" says Graham Hunter, Vice President of Business Development at CompTIA.
