

Dr. Manas Kumar received Gulf Achievers Award for Best Life Coach 2022

Manas, who comes from a middle-class background from India, became a successful influencer within a short time in Dubai.

Dubai, United Arab Emirates Dec 20, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Manas Kumar Mahanandia, an Odisha native from a small town and the son of Sri Pradeep Kumar Mahanandia and Smt. Sabita Mahanandia comes from a middle-class family. He finished his education in Bhubaneswar before becoming one of Dubai's most well-known life coaches. Working with IIT-JEE students at the beginning of his career as a teacher, he soon recognized that he was seeking more from life than just teaching. He moved to the UAE in July 2019 in order to advance his academic career and look for work as a chemistry lecturer.

In addition to teaching, Manas continued to seek a profession as a life and business coach. In barely two years, he became well-known and regarded as a life coach in Dubai. He has also earned honors and awards from a number of respected UAE notables.

He is a life coach, entrepreneur, educator, and blockchain influencer who is committed to his mission of building winning teams for businesses and educating people all over the world.

On November 6th, Manas received the Gulf Achievers Award for Best Life Coach 2022 from Meena Asrani, Founder & Owner of Being Muskan at Doubletree by Hilton, Dubai.
