Dublin, Ireland Dec 14, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Intela Research, an equity research firm focused on junior mining small capitalization public companies has initiated coverage of Endurance Gold Corporation (“EDG”) (TSXV: EDG | OTC: ENDGF | Frankfurt: 3EG). The in-depth 44-page initiation report includes detailed information on Endurance’s business model, services, industry, valuation, management, and risks.

The research report dated November 14, 2022, titled Endurance Gold Corporation (TSXV: EDG | OTC: ENDGF | Frankfurt: 3EG), “A New World-Class Gold Discovery?” was written and produced by Intela Research analyst James Darcel, CFA.

The full research report is available HERE. Highlights from the report include:

- The early-Discovery Stage Reliance Gold Project is 10 km from the Bralorne-Pioneer Gold Camp, British Columbia’s largest historic multi-million-ounce gold (AU) producer.
- Successful Reliance exploration began in 2020 with the discovery of the Eagle Zone, where ongoing activity is extending both recently discovered near-surface and historically drilled gold mineralization along strike and depth.
- New Eagle Zone feeder structures discovered this season have the potential to dramatically expand the gold endowment at depth.
- Outstanding gold intersection statistics for an orogenic gold system – 75% of all Diamond Drill (“DD”) holes (with assay results reported in 2021 and 2022) have returned significant gold intersections with >10 gram-meter (“gxm”) and 22% of these with excellent intersections of >100 gxm.
- Should continuing exploration through 2024 result in the discovery of a deep, multi-million-ounce gold resource, EDG’s market capitalization would increase significantly from current levels.
