New York City, New York Dec 8, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Robles is a board-certified anesthesiologist & pain management specialist with advanced training in cutting-edge regenerative medicine techniques. He offers his medical expertise and alternative approach to pain management at New Pain Solutions in Weslaco, Texas.

From stem cell therapy and platelet-rich plasma to ultrasound-guided pain injections, Dr. Robles has the most advanced treatment for every need. He is proud to serve his community and provide effective pain management solutions to those who need them.

As the firstborn son of immigrants from Mexico, Dr. Robles grew up with a passion for hard work and relentless learning instilled by his parents. Before his medical career began, he graduated at the top of his class in the Milwaukee Police Academy. He served in the United States Army Reserve as a medical officer and was awarded the National Defense Service Medal during the Gulf War.

Following his service to his country, Dr. Robles earned his medical degree at the Medical College of Wisconsin. He then went on to complete his internship in internal medicine and residency in anesthesiology at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

In order to provide patients with a broader range of treatment options, Dr. Robles continued to pursue advanced training. He is certified in interventional regenerative orthopedic medicine, musculoskeletal ultrasound, and bioidentical hormone replacement therapy.

His extensive medical training and passion for serving his community make Dr. Robles exceptionally qualified to serve patients with regenerative needs. He has volunteered his skills in orthopedic regenerative medicine in 10 international medical missions and is a true athlete at heart.

A Fellow of Interventional Pain Practice (FIPP), he is recognized by multiple associations as a board-certified physician in Anti-Aging, Regenerative Medicine, as well as Metabolic and Functional Medicine.

Pain management is a branch of medicine employing an interdisciplinary approach for easing the suffering and improving the quality of life of those living with chronic pain. A pain management specialist is a doctor who specializes in pain medicine, focusing on the evaluation, treatment, and prevention of pain.

With more than 20 years of experience in the field, Dr. Robles is recognized as a Vitals Preferred Provider.
