Get to know Internist Dr. Kelsey Moon, who serves patients in Missouri.

New York City, New York Dec 22, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Moon is a practicing internist with Barnes West Medical Consultants in St. Louis, Missouri. She serves as an attending physician at Barnes-Jewish West County Hospital and Missouri Baptist Medical Center.

As such, she provides general primary care for her patients including physical exams, adult health maintenance, women's wellness exams, management of chronic disease, asthma treatment, diabetes treatment, smoking cessation treatment, and wellness promotion for patients of any age. She also believes in a patient-physician partnership that integrates the patient's goals into the treatment plan to achieve the greatest degree of success.

"I enjoy working closely with patients to maximize their quality of life through management of chronic health conditions as well as counseling on preventive medicine" expressed the doctor.

Academically, Dr. Moon received her medical degree from Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis in 2016. She then went on to complete her combined internship and residency in internal medicine at the said establishment in 2019.

With years of experience, she is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
