Get to know Gastroenterologist Dr. Kenneth Miller, who serves patients in New York, New York.

New York City, New York Dec 20, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Patients prize Dr. Miller's dedication, commitment, and expertise in consultative gastroenterology. He works at New York Gastroenterology Associates (NYGA), operating out of the office in the Upper East Side. He also performs endoscopies at The Endoscopy Center of New York.

His areas of clinical focus include colon polypectomy, colon polyps, colonoscopy, Crohn's disease, gastroenterology, inflammatory bowel disease, irritable bowel syndrome, small bowel obstruction, ulcerative colitis, and upper GI endoscopy.

NYGA is a premier independent gastroenterology practice in New York City. Recognized for providing the highest quality gastroenterological care, all NYGA physicians are board-certified and affiliated with Mount Sinai Hospital or NYU Langone Health. They provide consultation and a wide range of ambulatory tests at offices throughout New York City and perform colonoscopies and other endoscopic procedures in the affiliated ambulatory surgery center. They also offer telemedicine visits.

Consulting for a broad range of patients drawn from throughout the tri-state area, Dr. Miller treats patients with a broad range of GI conditions. He is a valued clinical resource for regional gastroenterologists, who refer him to patients suffering from particularly challenging complications of gastrointestinal diseases.

Serving as a Clinical Instructor, he enjoys a reputation as an excellent teacher of endoscopy and clinical gastroenterology at The Icahn School of Medicine.

Throughout his academic career, Dr. Miller completed his undergraduate degree at Cornell University and his medical degree at New York University Grossman School of Medicine where he graduated with the highest honors. He then received his internship and residency in internal medicine at Harvard Medical School Beth Israel Hospital. He also completed a fellowship in gastroenterology at Mount Sinai Medical Center where he won the Hope Babette Tang Research Fellowship.

In pursuit of clinical excellence, the doctor is board-certified in gastroenterology and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

A tireless patient advocate, Dr. Miller leverages greater than 15 years of experience, a deep fund of knowledge, and an unsurpassed work ethic to achieve the best clinical outcomes. He has outstanding endoscopic skills, specializing in upper endoscopy and colonoscopy.

For many years, he was on the Board of Directors of the Digestive Disease Research Foundation.

Gastroenterology is the branch of medicine focused on the digestive system and its disorders. A gastroenterologist is a physician who has extensive training in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders related to the esophagus, stomach, small intestines, colon, liver, pancreas, and biliary system.

Speaking to professional audiences both nationally and internationally, Dr. Miller also has advanced knowledge in clinical gastroenterology through numerous important research contributions published in leading peer-reviewed journals. He has a special interest in expertise in the contributions of endoscopy to the management of obesity.

Among his various accolades include the Patients' Choice Award (2020, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011, 2010, 2009, 2008), Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2020, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011, 2010), Patients' Choice 5th Anniversary Award (2020, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012), Top 10 Doctor - Neighborhood (2014), Top 10 Doctor - City (2014), On-Time Doctor Award (2020, 2016, 2015, 2014), and Compassionate Doctor Award - 5 Year Honoree (2020, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014).

On a more personal note, he is fluent in both English and Spanish.
