

Kristian Liebrand Brings Home the Gold AWARD at the New York Photography Awards2022

New York City, New York Dec 19, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Concluding 2022 with one of the most significant announcements, the New York Photography Awards, alongside the International Awards Associate (IAA), is proud to recognize and honor the best photographers worldwide.

This year photo artist Kristian Liebrand from Germany takes the Gold Award in the category “fine art nudes – professional”.

This work of Kristian Liebrand is characterized by unique creativity. Because it is an elaborately produced creation of photography and body painting, both made by the artist himself. The artist thus shows in an expressive way how beautiful, but above all aesthetic, the art of nude photography can be. The colorfulness makes it stand out from the otherwise often monochrome nudes and makes it a masterpiece of contemporary photography. With more than 60 international honors for photographic art, Kristian Liebrand is one of the most awarded photographers in the world in the field of fine nude art photography.

About New York Photography Awards

The New York Photography Awards program honors recognize and promote outstanding photographers worldwide, who share their vision with the world, through the lenses that portray the beauty of immutable reality. The Jury Panel is composed of top professionals from different parts of the world. Delivering a promising verdict, a few of these prestigious individuals include Marine Foissey (France), Alessandra Minotti (Italy), Nurlan Tahirli (Azerbaijan), Marc Olthoff (Netherlands), Lars Gesing (United States), Ingrid Vekemans (Belgium), Yvon Jolivet (Canada), and other prestigious individuals. More than 50 countries across the globe have presented their stunning submissions, totaling up to more than 3,500 entries in a single season, including the United States, Germany, United Kingdom, Italy, Netherlands, Australia, Japan, Spain, Canada, Austria, and many more.

Media Contact

Kristian Liebrand

info@aktfotostudio-nrw.de

Source : aktfotostudio

See on IssueWire