Get to know Interventional Pain Management Specialist Dr. Lars R. Newsome, who serves patients throughout the State of California.

New York City, New York Dec 29, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A highly-trained interventional pain management specialist, Dr. Newsome is affiliated with the San Diego Spine and Orthopedic Center, working alongside Dr. Eric S. Korsh. He offers a variety of procedures to manage pain, such as lumbar, thoracic, and cervical epidural steroid injections, facet injections, radiofrequency ablation, intrathecal drug delivery, and neuromodulation.

With a broad educational background, he received his undergraduate degree at Columbia University in New York and graduated with honors from the Indiana University School of Medicine. After completing his residency in anesthesiology and his fellowship in pain medicine at Emory University, he remained on the faculty for three years as an Assistant Professor.

Passionate about his profession, the doctor has received recognition as an Associate Examiner by the American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA), and is board certified in pain medicine, anesthesiology, and critical care medicine. As the certifying body for anesthesiologists since 1938, the ABA is committed to partnering with physicians to advance the lifelong learning and exceptional patient care. Its mission is to advance the highest standards of the practice of anesthesiology.

Continuously advancing his efforts, Dr. Newsome is a proud member of the American Medical Association, the Anesthesia Service Medical Group, the Ximed Medical Group, the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, the California Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, the San Diego Injury Network, and the Spinal Injection Society.

In collaboration with Scripps Physician Medical Group, he can be found on staff at Scripps Memorial Hospital La Jolla, and Scripps Green Hospital.

Pain management is a branch of medicine employing an interdisciplinary approach to easing the suffering and improving the quality of life of those living with chronic pain. A pain management specialist is a doctor who specializes in pain medicine, focusing on the evaluation, treatment, and prevention of pain.

Among his various accolades, Dr. Newsome was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society in 1979 and has been the recipient of the National Medical Fellowship Award (1979), Kaiser Foundation Award of Merit (1990), and Emory University, Anesthesiology Faculty Member of the Year (1986).

On a more personal note, he is fluent in both English and Spanish.
