“From the moment you come through our doors, you will experience our friendly and caring environment. Our homelike accommodations, large rooms, and picturesque setting complement the care you will receive from our professional staff of caregivers and physicians. Whether you are recovering from surgery, or a serious illness, or making decisions regarding long-term care, we understand how complex and important choosing the right healthcare setting can be. Our experienced staff helps to make a difference with their skilled hands and compassionate hearts” as stated on their website.

Earning her nursing degree from Boces, New York in 1999, Marie works with youths and teaches others how to achieve their nursing degrees.

Attributing her success to her love for helping others, she is a professional member of the Family Counseling Association.

A Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) is on the front line of nursing, interacting directly with patients on a daily basis. They work under the supervision of doctors and RNs, performing duties such as taking vital signs, collecting lab specimens, administering medication, ensuring patient comfort, and performing skills like trach care, foley care, ostomy care, wound care, G- tube care I.V. care, and reporting the status of their patients to their case managers.

LPNs are generally hired in settings such as doctors' offices, hospitals, nursing homes, home health environments, and rehabilitation centers. They must be skilled in balancing care for patients, performing skilled tasks, and completing practical daily administrative duties.
