New York City, New York Dec 21, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Consus Global, a leading procurement and supply chain solutions provider, is pleased to announce details of its partnership with The Orora Group, a global custom packaging solutions provider. As part of this partnership, Consus Global will drive procurement best practices & efficient spend management with a target of multi-million-dollar procurement cost savings over the coming years.

The Orora Group is a global packaging and visual solutions company with operations in North America, the European Union, and Australia. As part of this initiative, Orora has engaged Consus Global to implement a strategic sourcing and spend management program in order to deliver significant ongoing cost savings and improved operational effectiveness.

“Consus has been a tremendous partner in creating a comprehensive spend cube as well as providing procurement resources to identify and execute sourcing projects for Orora Packaging Solutions. Consus has greatly accelerated the pace of procurement transformation efforts intended to deliver bottom-line results. In addition to the results, they have been very flexible and customer-focused as we are building our partnership together,” says Kipp Podlewski, VP of Procurement, at The Orora Group.

“Driving innovation and achieving excellence are some of the common principles we share with The Orora Group. Our motto, “If you can measure it, you can manage it”, stands true for this program. We are driving data enrichment efforts to help deliver significant cost savings across a multitude of categories. Accelerating the adoption of our best-in-class strategic sourcing program, better spending management, and ultimately hard dollar cost savings are our combined goals. Together with the talented Orora team, we will continue to add multi-million-dollar savings to the organization,” says Saurabh Mehta, Managing Partner for the Americas, UK, & Middle East at Consus Global.
