

SRJ Productions UK Produces Electronic Remix of the Song "The Rain"

Artists: Vicki Johnson & Featured Artist Joe Bills

New Orleans, Louisiana Jan 3, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - SRJ PRODUCTIONS UK PRODUCES ELECTRONIC REMIX

OF THE SONG "THE RAIN"

SRJ PRODUCTIONS...Steven Richard Jones...working in the UK in collaboration with Artists: Vicki Johnson & Featured Artist Joe Bills in the States has taken on a new Electronic Remix of a song entitled "The Rain." The original release combined the artistry of Johnson & Bills in producing a song that already had intensely strong powerhouse tracks, great featured vocals, appealing lyrics, and a music video production to make it all blend. SRJ Productions welcomed this project to create a remix version of the material he entitled "SRJ's Deep HouseExtended Remix." There will also be a Radio Edit version to follow. These artists combine their resources and media contacts to make a statement on this musical endeavor nationally and internationally. The buzz has been circulating in anticipation over these three collaborating Artists' new release!

This song has been released in all target markets, and a premiere campaign has been developed by SRJ Productions. The development of this musical composition has provided the production to draw on eclectic sounds and alluring vibes, continuing to encompass the genre of electronic dance music successfully. This seasoned producer developed his own independent dance label 10 years ago with the desire to collaborate around the world, and his works are reaching the masses. This hot remix has already dropped....so let the DJs start spinning...
