This press release is to inform the readers that Ella Henderson's Father helped his daughter display her skills through a live show.

Grimsby, Lincolnshire Jan 12, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Ella Henderson's Father, Sean Henderson, always wanted to see his daughter be at the top of the music industry. He was always aware of how the music industry works and how it forgets young artists despite being hit once. However, he did not let go of his daughter's dream of being an established name in this industry. His dedication worked wonders and Ella became one of the most recently successful UK female artists with 6 top ten singles.

Even after she was counted among the best music artists, Sean advised her to keep her feet on the ground. Taking witty decisions at the right time, he prompted his daughter to participate in other auditions. She went out of her way to win judges' hearts with her amazing vocals. One of the judges asked her to join the team on the live shows.

Ella made her way through an audition for Simon Cowells TV show X Factor. This live show gave her the desired platform where she could display her skills to the world on live TV every Saturday night with audiences of close to 10 million viewers.
