

Epic Media Unveils Gripping Russian Crime Drama "NEOPHYTE" on YouTube

Moscow, Russia Mar 18, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Epic Media is thrilled to announce the release of its latest enthralling crime drama, "NEOPHYTE," now available for streaming on YouTube. Set against the backdrop of 1957 Leningrad, the series delves into the gripping narrative of Maria Krapivina, a freshly graduated law student who embarks on a journey within the Leningrad criminal investigation office. Amidst skepticism and mockery from her peers, Maria is determined to crack a case involving a traitor within the department, all while navigating complex relationships and uncovering familial secrets.

In "NEOPHYTE," viewers will be transported to a vivid portrayal of 1957 Leningrad, where the tension is palpable, and mysteries lurk around every corner. Maria Krapivina, portrayed by the talented Yana Gladkikh, takes center stage as she confronts challenges within the criminal investigation office, facing off against adversaries and unraveling the intricate web of deceit and betrayal.

Directed by the accomplished Oksana Karas, "NEOPHYTE" boasts a stellar cast including Nikita Efremov, Alexander Yatsenko, Taisiya Vilкова, and Yulia Aug, who breathe life into their characters, adding depth and authenticity to the series.

"Epic Media is proud to present 'NEOPHYTE,' a captivating addition to our diverse portfolio of compelling content," said a spokesperson for Epic Media. "With its gripping storyline, meticulous attention to detail, and stellar performances, we believe that 'NEOPHYTE' will captivate audiences worldwide."
