

Introducing Roqa: The Restaurant Review App That Pays You to Eat Out

Mclean, Virginia Jan 4, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - New Restaurant Review Application Pays You to Eat Out

Are you a foodie looking for a new way to discover great places to eat and earn rewards at the same time? Look no further than Roqa, the revolutionary new restaurant review app that pays you to share your dining experiences with friends.

With Roqa, you can earn instant cashback when you rate a participating restaurant's food, and even more when you share your experience on social media and any of your friends go and dine at the same restaurant. Roqa also offers meal-by-meal ratings to help you make more informed decisions about what to order.

"We're excited to offer a new way for foodies to discover great places to eat and earn rewards at the same time," said Sitki Ozcan, founder, and CEO of Roqa. "Our app makes it easy to rate specific dishes and share your experience with friends, so you can make better decisions about where to eat and earn money along the way."

Roqa is available now on the App Store. Download the app and start earning money on your next meal.
