

Samarth Tsquare launches their vision in the Maximum City

Core values & Vision on which Samarth T-Square helps common people to make their own dream home in the city of Mumbai

Mumbai, Maharashtra Jan 16, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Samarth T-Square is a new face and vertical of the 30-year-old Samarth Group of Developers. This group of companies has been working strenuously in almost every stream of secured housing for the residents of Mumbai city.

Everyone dreams to have their own home and Samarth T-Square helps them to make their dreams come true.

Samarth T-Square's core operations are into construction, redevelopment, and finishing distressed & incomplete real estate projects. They offer affordable residential housing, and budget-friendly commercial properties in their projects.

On 22nd Dec 2022, Samarth T-square launched the company's core purpose and core values of the company to the public which will ensure continued organizational development and encourage a growth culture in the company.

The Grand Vision Launch event was held in the celebrated Convention Centre of Jio World Centre located in BKC, Mumbai, and was attended by the Directors, staff, and investors of the company.

During this event, Samarth T-Square shared that having a core purpose will help drive the company's engine and put the people in action. The core purpose of the company is- "Reviving faith by building Value, Emotions & Homes"

With common people losing trust in real estate due to several real estate developers leaving the projects incomplete and refusing to return the investment of buyers, Samarth T-Square is on a mission to rectify the image of the developer which is correctly embodied in the core purpose here.

However to guide the company and the staff to work towards the core purpose the company also launched its six core values that the company will adhere to while making any decision for the company

Core Values:

- Integrity

To encourage, enforce, and empower people in the organization to do the right thing by living the highest values of sincerity, morality, equity, and acceptance.

- Quality

To ensure and maintain global standards of Quality by providing our customers with the best services by designing our processes and products to be well-defined, authentic, and dependable.

- Commitment & Trust

We believe in giving our complete time, effort, resources and focus to fulfill our responsibilities, and aim to build a foundation of trust by delivering reliable and assured products & services.

- Growth

We value continuous growth and learning to increment our knowledge, competence, skills, and customer base for achieving progressive targets in our business and personal lives.

- Teamwork

To undertake the collaborative effort and accountable teamwork to achieve our organizational goals and targets.

- Relationships

We believe in valuing individuals and building emotion with our customers, by creating a solid foundation of mutual understanding and purposeful communication.

Core values allow the stakeholders of the company to make good decisions while applying them to the new challenges that come along. The Directors and the staff of the company pledged at this event to adhere to these core values while undertaking any task for the company.

This event also witnessed the launch of Samarth T-Square's new and improved logo that looks like a Trident which symbolizes - "Conquer & Hope". Samarth T-square's new logo demonstrates their journey and promise of a better future;

With renewed hope, accelerated drive, and a fresh face, Samarth T-square is now prepared better than before for an era full of adventures and opportunities.
