New York City, New York Jan 6, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Specializing in cardiology and medical-surgical nursing, Sheba is a family nurse practitioner in New York City

Working in the healthcare sector, she interacts directly with patients to ensure that they receive quality care, understands physician instructions, and have access to the services needed to maintain optimal health. She holds an active license to practice, and continues to take an all-encompassing role in supporting a patient's well-being.

Earning her nursing degree (Family Nurse Practitioner Program) from Molloy University in 2018, Sheba is certified through the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, of which she is a member.

Furthermore, she is an active member of the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing, whose mission is "developing nurse leaders anywhere to improve healthcare everywhere."

A Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) provides continuing and comprehensive healthcare for the individual and family across all ages, genders, diseases, and body systems. FNPs maintain patient records, perform physical exams, order or perform diagnostic tests, prescribe medications, develop treatment plans, as well as treat acute and chronic illnesses, conditions, and injuries that fall under primary care.
