New York City, New York Jan 31, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A skilled neonatologist, Dr. DiCarlo is in practice at Brookwood Neonatology, an affiliate of Brookwood Baptist Medical Center, located in Birmingham, Alabama.

He specializes in treating a range of conditions that can occur during labor and delivery, including complications and neonatal jaundice. Additionally, he is experienced in managing perinatal conditions and respiratory distress syndrome, as well as caring for premature infants.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, Dr. DiCarlo received his medical education at Louisiana State University Medical School in New Orleans and completed his residency in pediatrics at the Medical University of South Carolina. He then went on to complete a fellowship at the University of Alabama's Department of Pediatrics, furthering his expertise in the field of neonatal and perinatal care.

Following his training, the doctor attained board certification in neonatal-perinatal medicine and pediatrics through the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Neonatology is a subspecialty of pediatrics that consists of the medical care of newborn infants, especially ill or premature newborns. It is a hospital-based specialty and is usually practiced in neonatal intensive care units. Neonatologists generally diagnose and treat newborns with conditions such as breathing disorders, infections, and birth defects, as well as coordinate care and medically manage newborns born prematurely, critically ill, or in need of surgery.
