His music is unlike any other and is refreshing to hear. When it came to becoming an artist his inspirations came from the storytellers of hip hop such as Drake and Kendrick Lamar. Not only did these celebrities motivate him to pursue music, but his late uncle was the main driving force. His uncle was essentially the one who encouraged him to be all he could be and make music his profession. Dante has a very unique style to his sound. His sound has the trendy vibe of melodic rap and hip-hop with his flare of course.

He is often compared to artists in the game such as Young Thug, Fetty Wap, and Don Toliver because of his lyrical delivery. While creating a new record he tends to vibe to the instrumental and resonate with it, this helps him to actually feel the beat and go off of his feelings. Currently, he is focused on his new release “Bread & Cheddar” which is out now on all platforms. The video is also available as well. Be sure you check out his new single. The song is sure to get you into high energy and get anyone listening moving.
