

Mens Pop up Spa services coming to Moncton

Certified Mens Health and Beauty therapist Claude Edwin Theriault is asking for a show of hands from men interested in booking quality professional body work services, of a Mens Pop-up Spa in Moncton later this year.

Moncton, New Brunswick Mar 10, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Men's health and beauty therapist Claude Edwin Theriault of Male Beauty Forum has many years of experience in male health and beauty; in Montreal and Toronto. Certified and multidisciplined Claude Edwin Theriault provides holistic alternative therapies that are both affordable and effective.

Age-defying solutions that make you feel and smell fantastic for a modest price! As a very liberal-minded and innovative professional, he ensures clients feel comfortable with bodywork done by another man, guaranteeing an enjoyable yet safe environment at every session. The demographics of Anglais Francaise make Moncton a great pop-up spa choice for Claude who feels it will be a good fit.

His spa treatments are affordable, effective, and delivered with a touch of relaxed personal care that is often lacking from big mainstream luxury business spa brands that are more in focus on new moms and women's health and beauty world, needs of makeup and nails.

Claude offers men's body hair removal, Swedish massage with hot and cold stone deep tissue massage, chakra tuning forks, and a mini facial treatment to end the session.

Claude Edwin Theriault is your go-to bodywork guy as the only Moncton-based men's health and wellness therapist specifically for males. When you want to feel confident and look good, life keeps us busy these days, and you need to turn it all off for an hour to reboot the system.

Claude Edwin Theriault is seeking a show of hands from gentlemen clients interested in a high-quality bodywork session. With practical and theoretical knowledge of alternative treatments, Claude strives to provide the perfect blend of rejuvenation practices suitable for men's health and fitness without being sexually focused in the least.

There are many crazy people out there; Claude is not looking for any fetish scenario combo types.

Claude is also keen on introducing an innovative electro-muscle stimulation modality that can fast-track your muscle strength conditioning workout method—with EMS innovation that delivers 60 minutes of workout in a 20-minute micro zipped training session in duo with your gym workout buddy or individualized at a higher rate for individualized service.

All done in a body suit called x-Body and a guided 20 min workout.

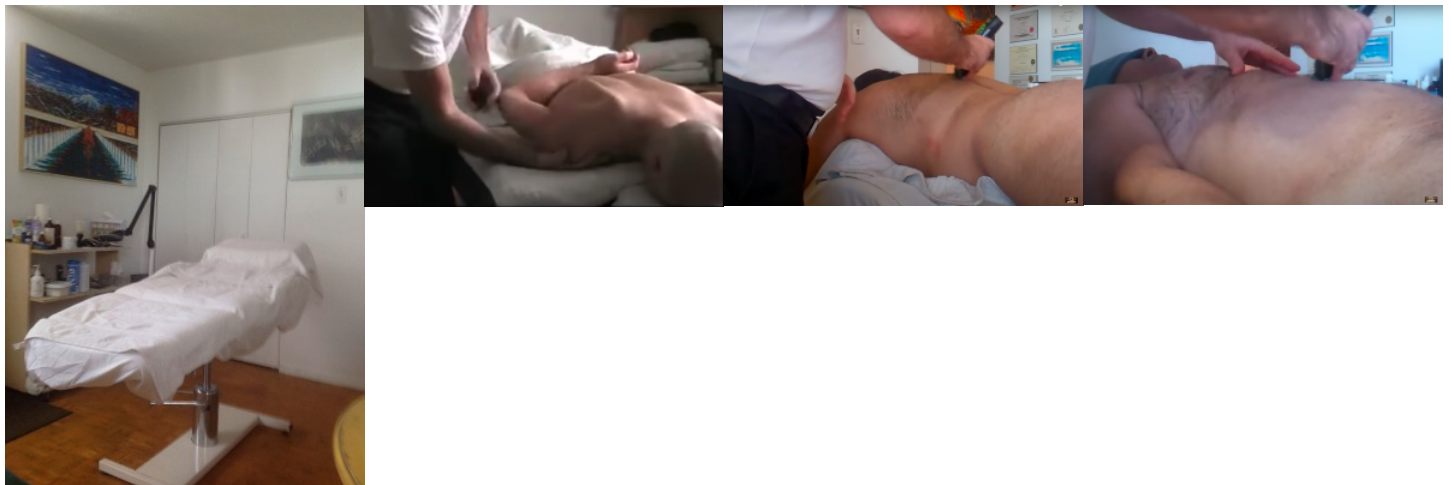

It is not a replacement for going to the gym but an excellent, cost-effective compliment to your current gym workout routine. Claude will love to bring this innovation to Moncton if there is a sufficient desire for this service.

It would be best if you went to Montreal to benefit from this X-body technology. Local area health enthusiasts would benefit significantly from X-Body sessions in Moncton at the beginning of the month. Let me know with a show of hands if this interests you.

A simple phone chat with Claude to ensure we are on the same page will secure an appointment at his clean, professional Spa studio near Moncton. For guys out of town, you can organize your visit to Moncton to coincide with the eight days Claude would be there and benefit from Spa services you can only get in Montreal or Toronto.

So make a note to treat yourself to this personal experience of deep relaxation through Claude's centering techniques.

As soon as he gets 32 shows of hands to ensure he has four clients per day for eight days, to warrant the time resources needed to make this Mens Spa pop-up work and try to include more days when it gets trendy.
