

NutriCargo's February's Prime Picks for Nutrient-Dense Foods

Premier Online Wholesale Ingredient Supplier

Clifton, New Jersey Feb 7, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - NutriCargo, the leading online supplier of high-quality, wholesale ingredients, is proud to announce its latest selection of nutrient-dense foods for February. With a focus on healthy and natural ingredients, NutriCargo's newest offerings are perfect for anyone looking to add more nutrients to their diet without sacrificing taste.

NutriCargo's February selection includes a variety of superfoods and healthy ingredients, such as amla berry, acai powder, and boswellia. These foods are rich in antioxidants, vitamins, and minerals, making them the perfect addition to any meal. Whether you are looking for a nutritious snack or an ingredient to enhance your cooking, NutriCargo has everything you need.

Acai powder is derived from the acai berry, a small fruit native to Brazil. Acai is packed with antioxidants, healthy fats, and fiber, making it a perfect ingredient for smoothies and other healthy drinks. NutriCargo's acai powder is made from pure, high-quality acai berries and is free from any added sugars or preservatives, making it a great choice for those looking for a healthy and natural ingredient.

Amla Berry, also known as Indian Gooseberry, is a small, round fruit commonly found in India. It has been traditionally used in Ayurvedic medicine for its rich nutrient content, including high levels of Vitamin C. Boswellia is a tree native to India and the Middle East, and its resin has been used for thousands of years for its aromatic properties. Both Amla Berry and Boswellia have been traditionally used as ingredients in various cultural and herbal remedies.

"We are proud to offer our customers a wide selection of nutrient-dense foods that are both healthy and delicious," said Steve Siegel, President of NutriCargo. "Our goal is to help people incorporate more nutrients into their diets, and our February selection is just the beginning. We will continue to source the best ingredients from around the world to ensure that our customers always have access to the highest quality products."
