

"Ode to Yesteryears": An Online Exclusive Group Exhibition in Honor of Black History Month

"Celebrating the Legacy and Contributions of Black Artists through Artistic Expressions of the Past"

Manhattan, New York Feb 2, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - "Ode to Yesteryears": An Online Exclusive Group Exhibition in Honor of Black History Month

TAAG Gallery is proud to present "Ode to Yesteryears", an online exclusive group exhibition in honor of Black History Month. The exhibition features emerging artists Obiora Anamaleze, Maria Tendo, Esewhaye Oghenetejiri, Jonathan Kabeya, Wisdom Uche, Eno Bassey, Samuel Inalegwu, Mayowa Adekile, Emmanuel Amiolemen, and Kolawole Samson Oluwadare, and will be on view from February 03, 2023, to March 01, 2023, on Artsy.net.

"Ode to Yesteryears" is a celebration of the rich cultural heritage and legacy of black artists, paying homage to their contributions to the art world. The exhibition showcases a diverse range of styles and mediums, including painting, photography, and mixed media. The works on view are a testament to the resilience and creativity of black artists and their unwavering commitment to pushing the boundaries of contemporary art.

"We are thrilled to be presenting this important exhibition in honor of Black History Month," said a TAAG Gallery representative. "We believe it is crucial to recognize the contributions of black artists and to provide a platform for their voices to be heard. 'Ode to Yesteryears' is a celebration of their talents and an opportunity to bring their works to a wider audience."

Embark on a visual odyssey as Rodney Asikhia, the visionary founder and chief curator of Tribes Art Africa gallery present a captivating showcase of art. Be awed by a rich tapestry of paintings, drawings, and mixed media masterpieces, each weaving its own unique tale of the human experience. From the trials and tribulations to the triumphs and relations, these artists invite you to delve into their interpretations of what it truly means to be human."

Visitors are encouraged to explore the exhibition on Artsy.net, where they can view the works and learn more about the artists and their practices.
