

Saad Al Amin: The Young and Talented Artistic workaholic Waves in Bangladesh and Beyond

From Youthful Dreams to beyond: The Inspiring Journey of Saad Al Amin

New York City, New York Feb 16, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - At only 17 years old, Saad Al Amin has already achieved more than most people do in their entire lifetime. Born and raised in Bangladesh, Saad has made a name for himself as a young and talented artist in the world of art and film. He has received recognition both nationally and internationally, including being named as one of the Top 6 "Glocal Teen Heroes." He Founded Muktir Ghonta at the age of 14.

Saad's passion for art and film has led him to start several initiatives that aim to promote creativity and provide opportunities for young people to showcase their talents. He is the founder of Muktir Ghonta, a youth organization focused on film and media, as well as Videophics, a marketing agency, and the Creative Youth Community. Through these initiatives, Saad has been able to provide a platform for young people to express themselves and pursue their passions.

Muktir Ghonta, which translates to "Bell of Freedom," is an organization that aims to empower young people through the power of film and media. The organization provides training and mentorship to young filmmakers, enabling them to tell their stories and create content that reflects their experiences and perspectives. Through Muktir Ghonta, Saad has been able to help young people develop their skills in filmmaking and media, and has provided a space for them to showcase their work.

Videophics, on the other hand, is a marketing agency that provides services to businesses and organizations. The agency provides creative and innovative solutions to marketing challenges, helping businesses and organizations to stand out and reach their target audience. Through Videophics, Saad has been able to apply his creative skills to a business context, providing value to clients while also honing his own skills in marketing and entrepreneurship.

The Creative Youth Community is yet another initiative started by Saad that aims to provide opportunities for young people to showcase their creativity. The community brings together young people from diverse backgrounds and provides a space for them to collaborate, share ideas, and pursue their passions. Through the community, Saad has been able to create a network of young creatives, providing them with support and resources to help them succeed.

In addition to his own initiatives, Saad has also worked with various organizations, including English Olympiad, 100 Million Mindset, and Chalkboard, to bring creative initiatives to life. Through these collaborations, Saad has been able to contribute to a range of projects, from education and literacy initiatives to social and environmental campaigns.

Despite his many accomplishments, Saad remains humble and grounded. He recognizes the importance of continuous learning and growth and is always looking for new ways to improve his skills and knowledge. As a student, Saad started his education at the age of 6 and is now in higher secondary education. After completing his studies, he plans to study abroad and is already making strides towards that goal by participating in Harvard University's "Aspire Leadership" program to enhance his leadership skills.

In one of his recent events, Saad spoke about the importance of creativity and innovation, encouraging people to "Do it but do something new and be creative." His words reflect his own life, as he continues to push the boundaries and strive for excellence in all of his pursuits. Through his art and film, Saad is able to tell stories and create content that is both inspiring and thought-provoking, and through his initiatives and collaborations, he is able to make a tangible difference in the lives of young people in Bangladesh and beyond.

In conclusion, Saad Al Amin is a shining example of what young people can achieve if they put their minds to it. Despite his young age, he has already achieved much and has a bright future ahead of him. We expect SAAD will shine & In Bangladesh, there will be 100 of person like Saad Al Amin.
