

San Diego's Famous ZaZa Dogz Unveils The Tanka Buffalo Hot Dog

San Diego, California Feb 27, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - San Diego's beloved hot dog cart, ZaZa Dogz, is thrilled to announce the addition of Tanka Buffalo Hot Dogs to its menu. Founder John Gonzales stated that the new Tanka Buffalo Hot Dogs will provide customers with a unique and flavorful option.

Tanka Buffalo Hot Dogs are made with buffalo meat and wild rice and are a product of Native American Natural Foods, the makers of Tanka Bar. The company's mission is to provide sustainably grown foods that are minimally processed with care and respect to help people feed their minds, body, and spirit.

The Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, where Tanka is based, was once on the brink of economic ruin. But tribal elders Mark and Karlene found a solution by using cultural tradition to help create a sustainable economy for the Lakota people. Tanka Buffalo Hot Dogs is just one of the many delicious and sustainable foods offered by Native American Natural Foods.

ZaZa Dogz has been serving up authentic Tijuana Dogs for years and is excited to add the Tanka Buffalo Hot Dog to their menu. With this new addition, customers can enjoy a delicious and unique hot dog while supporting Native American producers and a sustainable economy.
