

Say Farewell to Long Waiting Hours and Queues with the NZeTA

Auckland, New Zealand Feb 17, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - A dazzling country located in the South Pacific Ocean, New Zealand offers breathtaking views and stunning landscapes, enthralling nature lovers and adventure seekers. Post lockdown, the country has seen a dramatic rebound in international visitors to the country. In 2023, the government of New Zealand plans to strengthen its promotion of international tourism in the wake of opening up its borders to global tourists.

The beautiful country is open to visitors from Malaysia, as the country offers New Zealand Visa for Malaysian Citizens. Malaysian passport holders can enter the country on New Zealand Electronic Travel Authority (NZeTA) for 90 days under the visa waiver program that commenced in 2009 and came into effect for Malaysian citizens in July 2019.
