L-Iklin, Valletta Feb 15, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - On January 31, 2023, the closing ceremony of the 8th Malta Film Festival was successfully concluded in Valletta. The plot short "Game" stood out and won the "Best Story Short Film Award".

The film is directed by Kang Li and Jie Wang, directed by Yifei Liu and planned by Jicheng Wang. The film is produced by Li Zhang of the Nanjing Children's Channel "Children in the Mood", and starred by children's actors Ruichenyu Cao, Shichun Li, Manlin Jin, Siyu Liu, Xinqi Sun, Zhicheng Wang, and Yichen Ye who have been auditioned throughout the province. At the same time, actors such as Hanqing Zhao, Sizhen Han, Weinan Zhang, and Yibo Xu are invited to participate in the special performance.

With the guidance and support of the Institute of Film and Television Arts of Suzhou University, the School of Culture and Management of Nanjing Media College, and the School of Art of Anhui University of Finance and Economics, the film script was prepared for three months, and the preliminary preparation of the film took five months.

It is understood that the feature film "Game" has "overcome all obstacles" in the international film festival, and has been selected and selected from hundreds of excellent works. The film was recognized by the Organizing Committee of the Film Festival and won the honor of "Best Short Story Award" at the Malta Film Festival because of the focus on hot topics calling people to explore how to pay attention to and listen to the voice of children and pay attention to their growth.

As of the release date, in addition to winning the "Best Story Short Film Award" of the Malta Film Festival, it has also been strongly affirmed by the President of the Cyprus International Film Festival and invited by the organizing committee of many international film festivals.

This film won such a high honor in this international film festival, which is the affirmation of the international film festival to Chinese children's drama film, the affirmation of the children's leading role in the film, and the affirmation of the activity drama short film works focusing on children.

According to the crew of "The Game", as a children's theme film, the work is very cautious about the plot design and actor selection. The plot design has gone through two months of discussion, and the selection of actors has gone through several weeks of layer-by-layer selection to finally determine the children's leading role in the film. In order to present the effect of the plot, senior actors and other actors have been specially invited to participate in the performance.

It is reported that the theme content of the feature film "Game" focuses on the "growth", "aesthetics" and "love" of teenagers, and covers topics such as "children's growth", "game and speculation", and "parent-child generation gap". How to protect the growing children, pay attention to and listen to the children's own voice, is the question that the film always ponders, and is also the original intention of this public welfare feature film.
