Why go back to the roots "Ayurveda"

Noida, Uttar Pradesh Feb 6, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Vedikroots Pvt Ltd, a leading provider of digital health and wellness solutions, today announced the launch of its new and improved health website vedikroots.com. The website offers a comprehensive platform for individuals to manage their health and wellness, providing access to a wide range of resources and tools.

The new website features a personalized health recommendation system, which provides customized health suggestions based on the user's health history, lifestyle, and goals. The website also features a telemedicine section in collaboration with a renowned healthcare provider, offering virtual consultations with licensed doctors and specialists.

In addition, the website has introduced a new section dedicated to mental health and wellness, including articles and resources on various topics related to mental health. The website has also partnered with fitness experts to offer online workout classes and fitness plans to users.

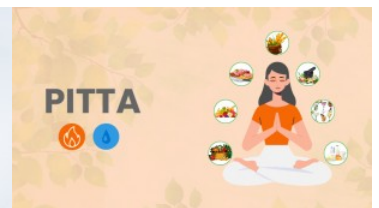

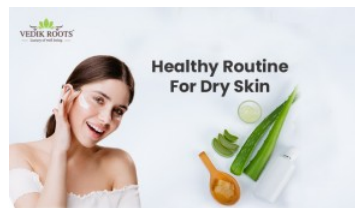

For added convenience, Vedikroots has also released a mobile app that syncs with the website, allowing users to track their health and wellness progress on the go. The app features a rewards program that encourages users to adopt a healthier lifestyle and rewards them for healthy habits.

"We are proud to announce the launch of our new and improved health website, [Website Name]. Our mission is to empower individuals to take control of their health and wellness, and we believe that this new platform will help us achieve that," said Atul Kumar, CEO of Vedikroots Pvt Ltd.
