FINAL ROUND RESULTS

Congratulations to all Finalists and Prize Winners,

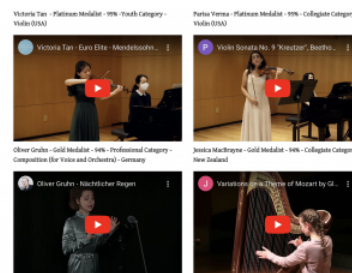

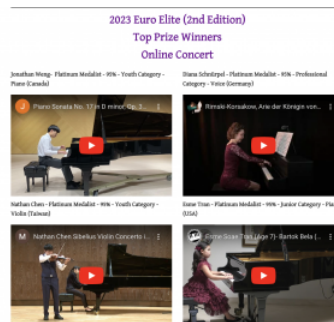

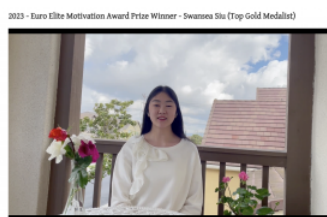

It is with great pleasure that we announce the results of the 2023 Euro Elite International Music Competition (Second Edition). The standard in the final round is very high, and we are truly delighted to have the opportunity to discover many outstanding performances, from very young performers to forthcoming artists at the professional level.

Congratulations to all winners and participants for their outstanding performances and hard work. We hope that this competition serves to inspire our young musicians to continue to strive for excellence and to share their musical voices. We also hope that this online winners' gala concert serves as a motivator and inspiration while nurturing a sense of mutual appreciation amongst finalists.

We look forward to listening to your performances again sometime in the future!

All the best and musically yours,
Euro Elite International Music Competition Committee
