

Dr. John Manzella Changing Lives Of Students With Incarcerated Parents Through His Scholarship For Second Opportunities

Allentown Physician John Manzella Gives Back To Students In Need

Allentown, Pennsylvania Mar 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. John Manzella, a physician, and entrepreneur is currently helping students with incarcerated parents through his scholarship grant. The grant is open for high school and university students in the United States with their guardians or parents in prison. The Dr. John Manzella Scholarship for Second Opportunities will choose one winner through creative writing. Interested applicants may submit an essay with most than one thousand words, answering the question that will be seen through his scholarship website. Along with the essay comes the student's biography, full name, location, contact number, email address, high school background, where the student is currently studying, and general point average. In a word format, they can send their applications to apply@drjohnmanzellascholarship.com. A student with the best essay will get a chance to win a monetary reward of one thousand dollars. Students may participate and submit their application until June 15, 2023. The announcement of the scholarship winner will be on July 15, 2023.

Dr. John Manzella is aware of the difficult road that people with jailed parents have been on and that stress for these students is not just related to their academics. The purpose of his grant is to help students with a parent incarcerated in prison who cannot afford their tuition. The scholarship is intended to allow these students access to higher education and help them overcome the challenges they may face in achieving their dreams. Dr. Manzella will choose one student to win one thousand dollars through creative writing. He hopes that this monetary reward will be a big help to the winner. With the rising education costs this year, this scholarship grant plays a significant role. Students may use the money for academic fees, books, or tuition. Dr. Manzella aims to give awareness about the struggles and stress faced by students with incarcerated parents and guardians. If anybody knows a student who will qualify for the grant, tell them so they can participate in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Before he established his own scholarship grant, Dr. Manzella was also a student who persevered to achieve his dream. He earned his degree in Biology from Marquette University. In 1995, he earned his doctorate from the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine. In 2013, he received a Ph.D. from the University of Rochville. He has been serving the community since then. Dr. Manzella founded Housecalls.com in 2009, a house-call-based medical practice in Pennsylvania. He is their Practice Manager and Medical Director. Dr. Manzella is also a Physician Liaison and Billing Specialist at Topper Medical in Allentown, PA.

Dr. John Manzella has a successful career with over thirty years of experience. He knows that before some achieve their dream, they will face different hardships, one of which may be a financial problem. He established the grant for hardworking students with incarcerated parents. Any students residing in the United States are welcome to apply.
