

Ethar Akhtaruzzaman: The Rising Star of Bangladesh's Literary Scene

Introducing Ethar Akhtaruzzaman: The Speaker of Silence

kolkata, West bengal Mar 31, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Bangladesh has produced many great poets over the years, and Ethar Akhtaruzzaman is one of the most promising young poets to emerge from the country in recent times. He is a poet, author, and lyricist, who has made a name for himself through his unique writing style, video content, and recitation.

Ethar is known as the 'Speaker of Silence,' a name that reflects his deep understanding of the power of words and the beauty of silence. His debut poetry book, 'Noishobdher Ghor,' which was published in 2021 by 'Aajob Prokash,' received a tremendous response from readers and followers alike. The book's third edition is now on the market, a testament to Ethar's growing popularity.

In just four months after the release of his first book, Ethar published his second poetry book, 'Ruitoner Bibi,' which also received an overwhelming response. His third book, 'Boshonto Bibhrom,' published in 2023, was stocked out during this year's 'Ekushey Boi Mela.' Ethar's writing style is unique, and his poetry video content has gained him immense popularity across various social media platforms. He has gained a significant following, particularly for his poetry recitation videos.

Ethar is the first poet from Bangladesh to publish a poetry recitation collection in his own voice, titled 'Backspace,' which is available on almost all international streaming platforms, including Spotify, Amazon, and Apple Music. Ethar is not just a poet but also a lyricist. His first written song, 'Ferari,' published in 2011, became an instant hit and was voted 'Best song of the month' by the audience of 'Radio Foorti,' one of the most popular FM stations at that time. Ethar has written more than 20 songs, including an album titled 'Aamar Ami,' where he wrote all the songs.

Ethar's readership is mainly composed of younger audiences, many of whom discovered poetry through his works. He has over 100k followers on his Facebook page, and his follower ship is growing day by day. Ethar has a dream that 'This city will be poetic one day in every aspect,' which he uses as his motto.

Ethar Akhtaruzzaman's unique writing style, video content, and recitation have captivated audiences, making him one of the most promising young poets and lyricists in Bangladesh today. We can't wait to see what he has in store for us in the future.

Wahid Zaman

alien.ethar@gmail.com

Source : https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Ethar_Akhtaruzzaman_1.jpg

See on IssueWire