

Get ready for an adventurous experience with "GLOW OF THE RED STAR" by Paul McCoy

PA BOOK Review "classifies the story as outstanding both in style and language, especially the apparent fact that many exegeses have gone into the book's writing."

GLOW OF THE RED STAR

PAUL MCCOY

New London, Connecticut Mar 1, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Be ready to shift and wander through the past and future as Paul McCoy brings you to another dimension of the history of time travel in his book, Glow of the Red Star.

This is a story of an infamous archeologist Tom Sanders who is called upon to find the Myan lost city of Tikal. Together with his beloved friend Susan, Tom discovered the key to opening the past and future.

Will it be a smooth sailing journey for Tom and Susan? what odds or adversities will they encounter? Be part of their journey to finding the lost city...

Book enthusiasts may grab a copy of the book at Amazon and Barnes&Noble.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Paul is a retired corrections officer who served four years in the US Navy. Although he was originally from Missouri, he spent most living his life in Connecticut. Throughout the years, Paul developed his unique writing style in creating and visualizing characters to captivate his readers and bring them into a new dimension of mindless entertainment.

Media Contact

Parchment Global Publishing

info@parchmentglobalpublishing.com

1-888-266-0922

244 Fifth Avenue, Suite V278, New York, N.Y. 10001

Source : Parchment Global Publishing

See on IssueWire

