Los Angeles, California Mar 29, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Premiering April 21st, Hollywood Unexpected with Jessica Ross is an Award-winning reality show that follows the journey of actress Jessica Ross into her dramatic and often crazy life, which centers around Hollywood and what happens behind the scenes. It reveals the ambitions, the disappointments, and the ups and downs of what people of every age may be experiencing.

Going to auditions, walking down red carpets, and being invited to the best parties in town. Things are moving along, working on different projects then slowly but surely life changed for everyone. A PANDEMIC!!!

The inspiration for “Hollywood Unexpected” began when Jessica Ross was surprised with a trip to Virginia to visit friends after having one of the most stressful years ever. Anticipating enjoying a relaxing vacation away from the city, it instead turns out to become an adventure of a lifetime.

Filmed throughout Los Angeles with the first several episodes taking place in Virginia, a special preview episode of “Hollywood Unexpected” was presented with the award for best comedy and received an honorable mention for the highest-rated audience award at the iHollywood Film Festival.

“There is so much off camera that people don’t see, viewers will get a glimpse of what goes on at red carpet events, daily life, and auditions, and be exposed to what the industry is really like. Like for so many, things drastically changed after 2020. When I was surprised by a trip to Virginia and experienced the lifestyle there, it was so much different than what I am used to, and truly one of my most memorable experiences. I can’t wait to share Hollywood Unexpected”

Cast members include Penn and Teller’s Wes Iseli, former supermodel Ronnie Carol, Malibu Crush star James Pratt, red carpet flashbacks from Bai Ling, Patty Stranger, and MTV’s Farrah Abraham, as well as appearances from her friends and colleagues.

“Hollywood Unexpected” is relatable to anyone that’s going through life and pursuing their goals. In “Hollywood Unexpected” Jessica shares the laughter, the feelings, and the tears, from what we have all experienced since the pandemic, as well as what we will face in the future separately and together.

Tune in to Hollywood Unexpected on April 21st on the XOTV Network at www.Xotv.me. The show can be seen online and on selected channels on Smart TVs.

When co-founder Franz Michael reached 100,000 subscribers on YouTube in 2017, the algorithm changed and resulted in his account losing views.

The loss of views meant he was also losing considerable income. He knew there had to be a solution, which is why he reached out to Franz about starting their own platform.

The mission would be to make a new way of creating, connecting, and consuming with others online while putting user privacy first. Later that same year they created XOTV. Shows on XOTV are available online and on select Smart TV channels.
