Thereafter, he earned his board certifications through the American Board of Preventive Medicine, the American Board of Internal Medicine, the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, and the American Board of Addiction Medicine.

Psychiatry is the medical specialty devoted to diagnosing, preventing, and treating mental disorders. These include various maladaptations related to mood, behavior, cognition, and perceptions. Psychiatrists are medical doctors that evaluate patients to determine whether their symptoms are the result of a physical illness, a combination of physical and mental ailments, or strictly psychiatric. They are qualified to assess both the mental and physical aspects of psychological problems.

Among his numerous achievements, Dr. Garbely has won teaching awards on a local and national level, including the American Psychiatric Association's Helen Ruske, MD Award for Excellence in Medical Student Teaching.
