

New Album from Dave Cirino, the soulful singer, and songwriter

Trenton, New Jersey Mar 17, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Dave Cirino, the breakout R&B/Soul artist, has released his highly anticipated album LuvMotion Equinox. Raised in southern New Jersey, Dave began singing at a young age in the church choir and quickly developed a passion for music. Drawing inspiration from the likes of D'Angelo, Marvin Gaye, and Pharrell Williams, Dave Cirino has crafted a collection of soulful and dynamic tracks on LuvMotion Equinox that showcases his unique blend of a modern and classic sound. From upbeat anthems to heartfelt ballads, the album is sure to appeal to fans of all ages. The album features live drums from OK Go's Dan Konopka and lives bass from Ben Krahl.

Dave Cirino burst onto the music scene with his debut EP Spaceman and full-length Spaceman Reloaded, quickly gaining widespread attention via music placements on NBC, Fox, CBS, ABC, and Showtime. Since then, Dave has taken some time with his family and decided to curate an album with specific attention to having music that can be enjoyed with family.

"I'm so excited to finally share this new album with my fans," says Dave Cirino. "I poured my heart and soul into every track, and I can't wait for everyone to hear it."

LuvMotion Equinox was released worldwide on all digital service providers via AWAL/Sony Music Entertainment. Take advantage of the chance to hear the latest from this rising R&B/Soul singer/songwriter.
