"When Angelina reached out to me, I didn't hesitate," said Double-Platinum Music Producer/DJ Frankie Cutlass who appears on the cover of Preferred Health Magazine speaking about his weight-loss journey and the loss of both parents to diabetes and heart failure. "I have a lot of fans who need to hear my story," he told the crowd.

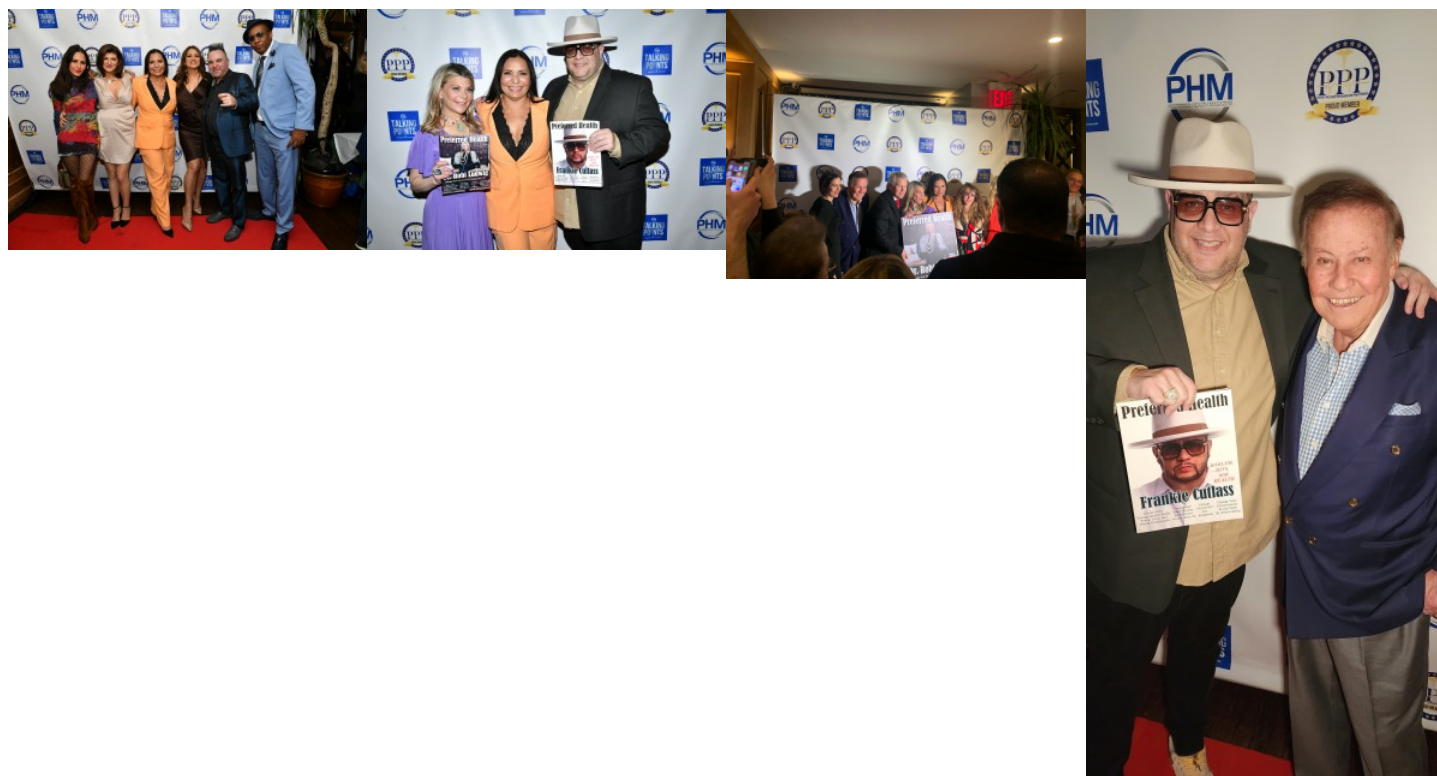

Esteemed Psychologist Dr. Robi Ludwig praised the team at Preferred Health, calling them the "game changers" of health publications. "Preferred Health Magazine is a wonderful magazine promoting physicians and science, and pro-social information. It's a place you can go to learn more about yourself, what's going in the medical field, and psychological field," said PHM's January cover girl. "They have been game changers in my life."

The guests of honor were happily surprised when awarded “Professional of the Year” by sponsors Patient Preferred/Preferred Professionals Network, for their contributions in their respective fields.

Angelina Cappiello says the magazine’s “Keeping Health Hip” brand is about providing readers with the latest information regarding all modalities of health and wellness. “We don’t all check the same boxes when it comes to health,” said the no-nonsense EIC dressed in a bold apricot suit by Donna Karan. “That’s why it’s so important to continue to educate our audience by bringing them relatable interviews, articles regarding new medical procedures, research, great doctors, lifestyle needs, nutrition, and mental health issues. We want to answer those questions people are wondering about but were afraid to ask. Health shouldn’t be intimidating to anyone, at any age. We’re trying to help give readers the tools so they can make educated decisions about health for themselves and their family.”

Since 2017, Preferred Health Magazine has been able to produce knock-out interviews with Deepak Chopra, Mallika Chopra, Fran Drescher, Montel Williams, Jennifer Beals, Sharon Gless, and even the late legendary reporter Larry King. Staying true to their M.O., PHM’s Spring edition is continuing to Keep Health Hip with exclusive interviews with Platinum Recording Artist Jewel; and Radio Personality Sid Rosenberg.
