

The most awaited Nimboo App is finally launched by bGlide

Jaipur, Rajasthan Mar 30, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Everyone needs extra income these days. Job satisfaction is on another level these days. The phenomenon of earning extra is higher after the Corona period.

Keeping the above point in mind, bGlide finally launched its exclusive Associate Model - Nimboo App.

It is an exclusive platform for people, open to additional income sources besides their daily work/job.

Visitors can join the FREE Webinar and get information about the entire process during the Webinar. Registrations can be done only via the app. For Registrations, visitors need to enter their Mobile numbers only.

Currently, bGlide launched Nimbu Apps to sell its in-house products only. They will extend the NimbuApp like a marketplace in the coming days.

Webinar is the first step for every member who registers on the platform. The actual idea behind Nimboo Apps is to make everyone self-dependent. In recent days, many employees got fired from highly reputed companies around the Globe. In some cases, people got fired even though they performed well and an evening before their maternity leave started.

This current era of Job uncertainty is encouraging everyone to find another earning source along with the job they are doing. People also want freedom from the 9 to 5 corporate culture. bGlide has launched the Nimboo App for these audiences. They can register for the webinar just by using their mobile number. After the webinar, they will get their unique joining code to start. The eligibility Joining Code is to attend the webinar and get complete information about the process.

The Webinar is to educate all the members about the process and earnings.

Registered members can earn up to Rs. 1,37,500 every month as their commissions.

"A1insta.com is the first initiative of bGlide and Nimboo App is the second initiative of bGlide Infotech Private Limited. A1insta is the most successful brand of bGlide which has more than 8000 customers and 750+ positive reviews. bGlide has recently celebrated its success at Jaipur Head Quarters. Nimboo App will also be the Mega Successful project of bGlide"; says Mr. Sandeep Soni, Chairman of bGlide Group of Companies.

"There is no technical background required to register on Nimbu App. Anyone can be a member of the Nimboo App. The products are universal and can be sold to anyone. One of the initial launching products in the Nimboo App is for every Instagram user." Mr. Soni further added.

Every product in the Nimboo App already has positive feedback in the Industry. The products are already selling under different brand names. This associate model will give a boost to the company as well as the associates.
