

With the NZeTA, New Zealand Tourism has become Easy as Pie

Auckland, New Zealand Mar 8, 2023 (issuewire.com) - Given the incredible number of pending trips that have been postponed for a couple of years now, 2023 has been expected to be a truly busy year when it comes to New Zealand tourism, be it for business, medical reasons, or just for entertainment. For citizens from other countries traveling to this land of scenic enchantment for short stays, a New Zealand Visa is not optional, but is a mandatory requirement for all. With the massive quantities of travelers expected to visit the country this year, getting a paper Visa from the embassy can be a painstaking task. However, the introduction of NZeTA has been a boon in this regard.

Norwegian passport holders can obtain the online New Zealand Visa for Norwegian citizens for a period of 90 days by logging in to <https://www.new-zealand-visa.co.nz/new-zealand-eta-eligibility-for-norwegian-citizens>. Before traveling, they must ensure that the validity of their passport is at least three months past the expected date of departure.

Travelers from Switzerland can also avail of similar benefits from the New Zealand Visa for Swiss Citizens under the visa waiver program that commenced in 2009 and the NZeTA came into effect in July 2019. Know more about the requirements to procure an NZeTA at <https://www.new-zealand-visa.co.nz/new-zealand-eta-eligibility-for-swiss-citizens>.

Upon obtaining a New Zealand Visa for Iceland Citizens, nationals from Iceland can visit New Zealand for 6 months in a 12-month period. Know more details at <https://www.new-zealand-visa.co.nz/new-zealand-eta-eligibility-for-icelandic-citizens>. Upon landing, the travelers would have to present either an electronic or paper copy of their NZeTA at the New Zealand border and immigration.

The New Zealand Visa for Bahrain Citizens allows Bahrain citizens multiple entries during the period of its validity, which means that they can enter New Zealand multiple times with the NZeTA during its 2 years validity. For more detailed information, visit
