New York City, New York Apr 4, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - A committed family physician, Dr. Ekeledo is a second-year resident with Atrium Health Navicent, working with patients at their Family Health Center in Macon, Georgia.

One of the things that he values most about his current position is the opportunity to serve his community. Having grown up in Macon, he takes great pride in being able to provide the highest quality healthcare to members of his own community. He is also grateful for the supportive and welcoming environment provided by the program's faculty and residents, who have created a family-like atmosphere that fosters strong relationships among all members of the hospital staff.

Throughout his academic career, Dr. Ekeledo received his Bachelor of Science degree in Biology at the University of Georgia and went on to pursue his dream of becoming a doctor at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, graduating with a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree in 2021.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

In addition to his medical pursuits, Dr. Ekeledo has a diverse range of interests and hobbies. He loves spending time with his family and friends, creating music, playing soccer, and traveling to new and exciting places.
