

Craftaro Acquires Songoda and Brings All Content to Craftaro.com, Unveils Craftaro Crew Subscription Plan

Casper, Wyoming Apr 17, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Craftaro, a leading marketplace for game plugins, mods and servers, announced today that it has acquired Songoda, a popular provider of premium Minecraft plugins and services. With this acquisition, all of Songoda's content will be integrated into the Craftaro platform, providing users with even more high-quality content and services.

"We are thrilled to welcome Songoda to the Craftaro family," said Eli Rickard, CEO of Craftaro. "We believe that this acquisition will help us expand our offerings and reach even more creators and gamers. Songoda has a fantastic reputation in the Minecraft community, and we are excited to bring their content onto our platform."

As part of the acquisition, Craftaro will be unveiling a new subscription plan called Craftaro Crew, which replaces Songoda's current subscription plan, Songoda+. Craftaro Crew offers a range of benefits, including access to all original premium plugins, early access to new releases, exclusive discounts, and priority support.

"We are committed to providing the best possible experience for our users, and we believe that Craftaro Crew will help us achieve that goal," said Rickard. "We know that our users are passionate about gaming and modding, and we want to make sure they have everything they need to succeed."

Craftaro has become a go-to destination for game developers, modders and server owners looking to monetize their work. The platform provides creators with the tools and resources they need to build, market and sell their creations, while also giving gamers a diverse selection of high-quality content to choose from.

"We are confident that this acquisition will help us grow even faster and provide even more value to our users," said Rickard. "We are excited to work with the talented team at Songoda and to integrate their content into our platform."
