

Craftaro Pays Out Over $134,000 to Game Plugin, Mod and Server Creators in Q1 2023

Casper, Wyoming Apr 17, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Craftaro, a leading marketplace for game plugins, mods, and servers, announced today that it paid over $134,000 to creators in the first quarter of 2023. This news follows the recent acquisition of Songoda, which has allowed Craftaro to expand its offerings and reach even more creators.

"We are thrilled to see so many talented creators benefiting from our platform," said Eli Rickard, CEO of Craftaro. "Our goal has always been to support the gaming community and provide a platform where creators can monetize their work and connect with fans. This payout is a testament to the incredible talent on our platform and the dedication of our team."

Craftaro has become a go-to destination for game developers, modders, and server owners looking to monetize their work. The platform provides creators with the tools and resources they need to build, market, and sell their creations, while also giving gamers a diverse selection of high-quality content.

"Our success is driven by our community of creators and gamers, and we are committed to supporting both groups as we continue to grow," said Rickard. "We believe that the gaming industry is only going to get bigger and more diverse, and we are excited to be a part of that growth."

Craftaro's payout to creators in Q1 2023 is a new record for the company and reflects the continued growth of the gaming industry. The company plans to continue investing in its platform and expanding its offerings to ensure that creators have everything they need to succeed.
