A Certified Negotiation Expert, Daniela specializes in resales and new developments in several of Chicago's vibrant neighborhoods. She never lets anything get in the way of delivering success for her buyers and sellers. She knows the market and takes pride in her ability to develop a multi-faceted plan tailored to each individual's needs.

Also an interior designer, Daniela offers services that branch out from the typical real estate offering to assist her clients in elevating the home buying and selling process. Growing up in a multicultural family, Daniela has spent much of her life on the move, having lived in Mexico, Massachusetts, Florida, Texas, and now Chicago. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Nutrition and Dietetics from Florida International University.

Before real estate, she honed her ability to establish rapport with patients and their families as a registered dietitian. Her experience in multiple disciplines, including healthcare, has given her a well-rounded understanding of customer service and allows her to incorporate those principles when helping her clients.

With her focus going beyond the material aspects of real estate, Daniela has developed a large network, which she leverages when helping her clients buy or sell their homes. She takes responsibility for each part of the transaction to ensure a smooth experience and sticks by her clients through every step of the home buying and selling process, as their satisfaction remains her number one priority.

Having been recognized for her success in the real estate industry, Daniela was featured in Yahoo Financial Magazine, Chicago Journal, and Top Agent Magazine in 2022. Her ability to navigate the market, coupled with her knowledge and negotiating prowess, makes her the ideal broker when navigating the roller coaster of the home buying/selling process.

When not selling real estate, Daniela enjoys fitness, running, the arts, spending time with family and friends, and exploring all that Chicago has to offer.
