Teaching medical students, Dr. Zhukovski serves as a Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine at the New York Institute of Technology College of Osteopathic Medicine.

On a professional level, he is an active member of the American Osteopathic Association, the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians, and the American Academy of Family Physicians.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
